HISTORICAL BRANDON HALL—Built in 1849. At one time the home of former Governor Gerard Brandon, third governor of the State of Mississippi. Located 10 miles from Natchez, Mississippi, on Highway 61 North (or turn off Highway 61 on to Trace and take first right hand lane.) A beautiful old mansion of the modified Dutch colonial type with graceful Doric columns supporting the lower gallery which is surrounded by exquisite Irish harp and star grille work. The upper gallery is supported by unusual Corinthian columns which is surrounded by French iron work. It is completely restored and refurnished with outstanding antique pieces from many countries by the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White.
